

DOUGLAS MACARTHUR DAY

MAY 5 (legislative day, APRIL 30), 1942.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. VAN NUYS, from the Committee on the Judiciary, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. J. Res. 144]

The Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate joint resolution (S. J. Res. 144) designating June 11, 1942, as Douglas MacArthur Day, and authorizing its appropriate observance, after consideration thereof, report the joint resolution favorably to the Senate, and recommend that it be adopted, with the following amendments:

In the preamble:

1. In the first line, strike out the figures "11", and insert the figures "13", in lieu thereof.
2. In line 3, strike out the figures "11", and insert the figures "13" in lieu thereof.
3. In line 4, strike out the words "graduation from", and insert the words "appointment to", in lieu thereof.
4. In line 9, strike out the words "graduation from", and insert the words "appointment to", in lieu thereof.

In the resolution (p. 2):

5. In line 3, strike out the figures "11", and insert the figures "13", in lieu thereof.
6. In line 7, strike out the figures "11", and insert the figures "13", in lieu thereof.

This change in the date was made at Senator La Follette's request, and was desired for the reason that the State of New York has already established June 13, 1942, as MacArthur Day, the same being the date of appointment to the United States Military Academy.
